Defendant.)

ORDER OF FINDING OF NO THIRD-PARTY INTERESTS

On January 16, 2011, this court entered an order for forfeiture against defendant Thomas E. Lowery, for the following property which had been seized from said defendant:

A generic white CPU tower, bearing no visible serial number.

Said order further provided that the government would provide an opportunity for persons to claim a legal interest in the property pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(1).

The court notes that notice was published by the government on an official government website, www.forfeiture.gov, for 30 consecutive days beginning January 23, 2011, and ending February 21, 2011, and that no third party filed a petition within 30 days after the last date of said publication to allege an interest in the property.

Consequently, the court hereby finds, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(7) that no third-party petitions were filed and that the United States of America has clear title to the above-described property that is the subject of the Order of Forfeiture filed on January 16, 2011, namely:

A generic white CPU tower, bearing no visible serial number.

The Federal Bureau of Investigations or the United States Marshal shall dispose of the property according to law. Said disposal may, at the discretion of the United States, include the destruction of the property. Said destruction may be done at such time and location and by such persons as designated by the United States Marshal or the Federal Bureau of Investigations.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED: June 22, 2011
